

MISSION POSSIBLE MONTHLY

YOUR NONPROFIT NAVIGATOR

Hello Friends,

Welcome to the first issue of Mission Possible Monthly! Each month I'll share tools, stories and strategies to help leaders strengthen capacity, funding and impact. Too often, I see organizations doing vital work but struggling with sustainability or board engagement. My goal is to provide simple, practical insights to make your leadership journey easier - AND your Mission Possible!

Let's imagine, believe and achieve together.

A Bold New Direction for Greater Impact

At CP Davis Consulting, we've always believed in the power of strong nonprofits to transform communities. Over the past several years, our work has helped organizations secure millions in grant funding, build capacity and strengthen their ability to serve children, families and communities.

Now, we're excited to announce a new direction for CP Davis Consulting: expanding beyond grant writing to focus on the full spectrum of nonprofit leadership and organizational development. From board governance and strategic planning to capacity-building workshops, leadership coaching, and systems-level program design, our goal is to empower nonprofits not just to survive, but to thrive.

This new chapter is about shaping stronger, more sustainable organizations that can deliver measurable impact, embrace equity and lead systems change in their communities.

We invite you to stay connected as we roll out new services, workshops and resources in the months ahead - all designed to help nonprofit leaders imagine, believe and achieve their boldest goals.

Top 3 Nonprofit Capacity Pitfalls

Running a nonprofit is rewarding, but without strong foundations, even the best missions can stall. Three common pitfalls to watch out for:

1. Overreliance on One Funding Source
2. Board Misalignment
3. Lack of Evaluation

Tip of the Month

One question every Executive Director should ask their board this quarter: “What professional skill or network can you share to strengthen our mission?”
